

Vendor Information for Camp Floyd State Park's Day of the Cowboy July 28, 2018

This is a great opportunity for vendors as we are trying a new program at Camp Floyd State Park. Camp Floyd State Park was home to the United States Army, Mormon Pioneers, Stagecoach Travelers, and the Pony Express. The Army arrived in 1858 and constructed Camp Floyd to suppress a supposed Mormon rebellion. The Army remained here for three years before being recalled for the Civil War. Today, Camp Floyd State Park features three structures and a cemetery. Visitors can visit the museum and Stagecoach Inn and learn about this nationally important historic site. For this event we are looking for vendors with a Western, Cowboy, Cowgirl, Country or Historic theme to enhance the show. Crafts, art, clothing, hats, boots, tack, leatherwork, quilting, silversmiths, etc. The event will be from 11:00 am – 5:00 pm.

The vendor fee is free for this year but will increase next year depending upon popularity of the event. For those returning next year a 10% discount will be given.

Set up time will be from 7:00am – 10:00 am.

Keep in mind this is an outdoor show! You will need to provide your own shelter. Power may be available upon request.

Vendor Checklist:

- Temporary Food Establishment Permits.
Individuals seeking a permit to sell food at a one-time event may obtain a temporary permit. Permits must be obtained from Utah County.
- Vendors are responsible to pay all appropriate taxes on revenue from Camp Floyd State Park's Day of the Cowboy

Please feel free to call us anytime for more info or with any questions about the show.
